Heaven and the Higher Dimensions with Spanda Makt

Spanda will speak on the topic of Heaven and the Higher Dimensions from energy and information he received after his awakening as a small child, as well as from his time meditating for three hours per day for six years when he healed himself of depression. Topics covered will include the reality of Heaven from the perspective of Enlightenment, and an explanation of the dimensions from one to nine.

Spanda is an international spiritual mentor and multi-dimensional business development consultant currently based out of Southern California. Since the age of four, Spanda has maintained a constant connection with spirit guides on the celestial plane, relaying psychic messages to individuals from all walks of life.

Today, he acts as a trans-personal guide for spiritual entrepreneurs to understand the context and trajectory of their mission on Earth. His business-minded insights inspire individuals to expand into greater abundance and higher dimensional frequency. Spanda has spoken in Japan, Norway and several States in the USA.
