of the art facility. He further stated that on June 6, 2017, the GRF Board would be inaugurating the new Board Room. He stated that Chief Moy would be giving an update on the Emergency Operations Plan today. He further stated that he signed the Engineering Contract for the decision to begin on the new Pickle Ball/Paddle Ball facility.

UPDATE FROM VMS – Chair Lisa Bender

Ms. Lisa Bender, Village Management Services, Inc. (VMS) Representative, spoke about VMS and their activities. She spoke on the Strategic Plan the Board has been working on. She encouraged everyone to watch the State of the Village video. She stated that the Board would be keeping the five goals, will be implementing Ceridian Day Force software in HR, will be using more tablets in Landscaping and is re-implementing employee referral program. She spoke on the many changes in Resident Services and gave kudos to staff.

CEO REPORT

Mr. Bradley Hudson, CEO/General Manager, spoke on Dwelling Live and Granicus, he encouraged residents to use a smartphone or tablet to download the app to receive faster service, save money and keep expenses down. CEO Hudson spoke on the new Board Room and all the new technology and sound system that the residents can expect to see at the next meeting. The meetings will be streaming live. He spoke about changes in the T.V. Services. He reminded everyone that beginning January 2018, Analog TV will no longer be supported. Residents were encouraged to get a digital TV. He spoke on the new fitness center hours, which have been changed to 5:30 AM to 9:00 PM Monday through Friday and 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM on Saturday and Sunday for Clubhouse 1 and the Community Center. At Clubhouse 5, the gym hours are 5:30 AM to 9:00 PM everyday. CEO Hudson further stated that no new staff had to be added to accommodate the change in hours. He spoke on the changes to the Emeritus program: a few classes will be discontinued to ensure that residents have primary access to the facilities. He spoke on the internet speed, which is being upgraded to triple the speed with no extra cost to Residents. He spoke on the importance of the emergency operation plan.

MEMBERS COMMENTS

- Sue Margolis, 34-C, spoke on the Emeritus Program and the canceled classes. She asked the Board to reconsider.
- Sandra Feigelman, 254-A, spoke on the Emeritus Program and the canceled classes. She stated that she does not agree that people were kicked-out of the class. She wants the Saddleback teachers to stay.
- Paulette Stochelle, 360-D, stated that she attended the circuit classes and inquired as to why the residents were not a part of the decision before canceling classes.
- Ron Beldner, 203-C, commented on the price of the replacement car stickers. He thanked the Board for canceling non-resident classes. Mr. Beldner commented that as a Docent Tour guide he has often had the teachers advise his tour group that residents are not allowed to use the facilities unless they are part of a class. He stated that he has reported this to staff in the past.
- Mike Epstein, 2245-D, Spoke on the Emeritus program. He is in favor of keeping the programs. He asked if the classes are removed, who will teach them and how much will it cost the residents?

- Maxine McIntosh, 68-C, spoke on the garden center. There is not enough land to accommodate the long waiting list. She would like to see new gardens by next year.
- Mary Wall, 239-D, spoke about the bus shelter at gate 5 that was removed. She is requesting that it be replaced.
- Don Cole, 3365-2A, spoke on the locker room showers at the pools. They do not work well and the water flow is low. He is asking for showerheads to be replaced.
- John Sauers, 5377-B, Commented that he agreed with Mr. Cole's showerhead comments. He also talked about the RV parking area and the prices that the Third Mutual is charging for replacement parts.
- Carol Agon, 353-D, Spoke about the Emeritus program and how important those classes are to residents who do not drive.
- Pamela Grundke, 2214-B, addressed the Board and stated that she was the wife of one of the professors, Conrad Grundke. She is against canceling the classes.
